

AMERICAN EXPRESS COMPANY
NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER
(as amended and restated as of April 26, 2010)

---

Purpose

The Committee is responsible for assisting the Board of Directors in (i) identifying individuals qualified to become members of the Board; (ii) recommending Director nominees for each annual meeting of shareholders and Director nominees to fill any vacancies that may occur between meetings of the shareholders; (iii) developing and recommending to the Board corporate governance principles and practices applicable to the Company; (iv) recommending compensation and benefit programs for non-employee directors and policies relating to the tenure, succession and retirement of directors and (v) overseeing the annual review and evaluation of the performance of the Board and its Committees.

Organization

The Committee shall be composed of at least three directors who shall be appointed by the Board and who shall meet the independence requirements of the New York Stock Exchange listing rules. The members of the Committee and its Chair shall be appointed by the Board, and may be removed by the Board at any time, with or without cause. The Committee may, in its discretion, delegate all or a portion of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee.

The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain (and to approve the fees and retention terms of) outside consultants or search firms to advise the Committee with respect to the identification and review of candidates for the Board.

The Committee shall make regular reports to the Board. The Committee shall conduct an annual performance evaluation of the Committee and shall review its charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board.

Responsibilities

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee:

- Establishes criteria for selecting new directors which reflect the requirements of the New York Stock Exchange listing standards and which require each candidate to possess independence, integrity, forthrightness, experience in areas of importance to the Company and a commitment to the interests of the Company's shareholders as a whole.
- Considers and recruits candidates, in consultation with the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, to fill positions on the Board. The Committee shall also reconsider and reassess the contributions of those directors eligible for reelection and shall review the candidates who may be recommended by shareholders of the company not less than 120 nor more than 90 days prior to the annual meeting of shareholders.

- Recommends the director nominees for approval by the Board of Directors and the shareholders.
- Develops and recommends to the Board of Directors corporate governance principles addressing the size, independence, diversity, composition and responsibilities of the Board of Directors and its Committees as well as the Board's oversight of management.
- Advises the Board of Directors with respect to the charters and membership of the various Committees of the Board.
- Recommends compensation and benefits policies for the non-employee directors. Also recommends tenure, succession and retirement policies for directors.
- Provides suitable programs for the orientation of new directors and the continuing education of incumbent directors.
- Assures that the Company has in place appropriate planning to address emergency CEO succession, CEO succession in the ordinary course of business and succession for key members of senior management.
- Establishes criteria for evaluating the performance of the Committee, conducts an annual evaluation and discusses the results of the annual evaluation with the full Board.
- Oversees the annual performance appraisal of the Board and its Committees.
- Discharges any other responsibilities delegated to the Committee by the Board.
