AMERICAN EXPRESS CENTURION BANK

This supplement highlights selected information about American Express Centurion Bank ("AECB", or "the Bank") and the information presented below is qualified in its entirety by reference to and should be read in conjunction with AECB's Quarterly Call Reports for each of the years ended December 31, 2012, 2011 and 2010. The information contained in this supplement is current only as of December 31, 2012. AECB's business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects may have changed since that date.

Business

American Express Centurion Bank was incorporated under Utah law as an industrial loan company in 1987 and received Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") insurance in 1989. Its principal office is located at 4315 South 2700 West, Salt Lake City, Utah 84184. AECB is a wholly-owned subsidiary of American Express Travel Related Services Company, Inc.

AECB is regulated, supervised and regularly examined by the Utah Department of Financial Institutions and the FDIC. In addition, AECB and its affiliates are subject to supervision, examination and enforcement by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau with respect to the marketing and sale of consumer financial products and compliance with certain federal consumer financial laws, including, among other laws, the Consumer Financial Protection Act and the Truth in Lending Act.

AECB issues Blue from American Express, Blue Cash and other American Express branded revolving credit cards in the United States and owns most of the receivables arising from the use of these cards. AECB is also the issuer of certain consumer charge cards. In addition, AECB has outstanding lines of credit in association with certain consumer charge cards and offers unsecured loans to cardmembers in connection with its Lending on Charge program. The Lending on Charge program offers qualified United States cardmembers the option of extending payment for certain charges on a charge card.

In addition to earning cardmember lending finance revenues, AECB also receives revenue from cardmember fees and issuer revenue from billed business at service establishments. Proprietary charge and lending cards are offered with a variety of features and terms, including cards with differing rates, fees and grace periods, and cards with additional features such as rebates.

SELECTED FINANCIAL INFORMATION OF AMERICAN EXPRESS CENTURION BANK

The following unaudited financial information of AECB prepared in accordance with Regulatory Accounting Principles for each of the years ended or as of December 31, 2012, 2011 and 2010 was derived from AECB's Call Reports, which are incorporated herein by reference, and should be read in conjunction therewith and with the detailed information contained elsewhere herein.

In the fourth quarter of 2012, AECB reclassified certain amounts pertaining to annual card fees and fraud reserves on the Operating and Balance Sheet Data. The change in annual card fees increased Non-interest income and reduced Interest income and increased Loans and Other liabilities. The fraud reclassification led to a decrease in Provision for loan losses and an increase in Non-interest expense and a decline in Reserves and an increase in Other liabilities. Corresponding amounts in prior periods have not been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.
